

OFFICE OF SPECIAL AFFAIRS

OSA Network Order No. 10

OSA Int
Execs
Invest Staff
Litigation Personnel

1 September 2006

OSA Conts
Execs

Confidential

ENEMY MISTAKES

(Excerpted from a briefing of 25 July 1975.)

You always make an enemy make mistakes. One of the ways you do it is hit his morale, unstabilize him, make him frantic. And at that moment he will start to make mistakes. And then you just mop him up. That is a method of prosecuting a war. Particularly with an overwhelmingly huge enemy.

L. RON HUBBARD
Founder