

OFFICE OF SPECIAL AFFAIRS

OSA Network Order No. 132

OSA Int/Conts

1 March 1988

Execs

Production Bureaux Staff

IMPORTANT

TYPES OF CHARGES

(Originally an LRH despatch, written on 12 September 1973.)

When people have been put in fear of their lives, when they have lost their property, when they have for years suffered infamy “leaked” to the press from knowingly and maliciously internationally circulated false police records, words like “libel” and other civil law matters are very pale words indeed.

CONSPIRACY is the basic charge most in vogue today by police. It is CONSPIRACY to circulate false police records and send them across borders and secretly show them to judges.

A self-interest group introduced those false reports or the idea of making them to the police. By pulling strings we can tie this in.

Despite the renowned and honored opinion of a UK law firm, it is quite correct by common law that a criminal act can become the basis of a civil proceeding. If a woman’s husband, who is her means of support, is murdered one can civilly sue on her behalf to recover damages for the criminal action. This may have fallen out of use and law students dozing over their books may have missed the fact that this was once legal, has not been legislated against and at the worst has only fallen out of use.

In primitive tribes criminal acts are usually the subject of civil damages to the offended or wronged or injured party. The courts of Greece, on which all modern law, including Roman law, was founded SETTLED MURDER IN NO OTHER WAY in the majority of its suits.

CONSPIRACY to damage or wrong is the modern bridge between civil and criminal law. It is a criminal act which is civilly actionable. Correspondence alone, not only a physical meeting, can discuss an act and thus make a conspiracy. In those few places which debar this it is possible to prove meetings in the flesh. The FBI I think uses correspondence and phone calls to establish it.

YOU MUST HAVE A CHARGE AND DIRECTION WHICH PAVES THE WAY TO THE EVENTUAL SNOW WHITE GENOCIDE TARGETS BY OBTAINING DATA THAT THERE WAS A PLAN AND PLOT TO DESTROY A RELIGION.

There are other charges than over-used "libel."

L. RON HUBBARD
Founder